

WebyMom-- Clients Privacy Polic

Privacy of the client is an important factor for WebyMom. The client information and data that is shared with us is really valuable and we are committed to protect our client's privacy. This privacy policy by WebyMom enables the clients to take a closer look at our intention on how serious the issue is.

- Our hosted applications are complied with this privacy policy that we will not share any of the client information with third party without the written permission from the concerned party.
- All the personal information, analytical data, tracking data and related information is safe in the hands of WebyMom.
- WebyMom understands her duties and has default non-disclosure agreement for safe guarding the client information with other parties.
- The client information can never be shared, reproduced, sold, rented or leaked through any means in the wrong hands.
- Cookies and single pix gif images, which is used by WebyMom, can be accessed by us only when client allows the permission to do so.
- The information that is collected by us when working on client's website in any means will not be shared with anyone.
- WebyMom has security system in place which is SSL encrypted as well as password protected, while working on customer data.
- WebyMom will never indulge in unsolicited emails (Spams) which is an unethical way of business. The customers who do not wish to receive emails have the full right to do so. WebyMom always deals in permission-based operations, be it client or customers.
- Our privacy policies are subject to change from time to time. In case there are any modifications in the policies, we will disclose it on our homepage or any other suitable medium. However, we are not obliged to notify any sudden changes in the privacy policies.
- Any more queries related to WebyMom privacy policies, feel free send an e-mail to info@webymom.com